ALLEN COUNTY TO HOST WINTER STORM SPOTTER TRAINING

(LIMA, OH) – Meteorologists from the National Weather Service will be in Lima on Tuesday, November 29th at 6:00 p.m. to teach the “Winter Storm Spotter” training course sponsored by the Allen County Office of Homeland Security & Emergency Management and the Allen County Chapter of the American Red Cross. The training session will take place at the Red Cross Chapter House, 610 South Collett Street in Lima.

This is the third year for the training in Allen County and each year the program’s attendance has grown. The course is designed for interested members of the general public, as well as, public safety professionals and amateur radio operators.

The course is free, however advanced registration is encouraged. Interested persons should contact the Allen County of Homeland Security & Emergency Management at (419) 993-1405.
